FOLLOW THE FLAG!

WORDS BY

ELIZABETH ZERRAHN

MUSIC BY

CONSTANCE ZERRAHN BRADLEY

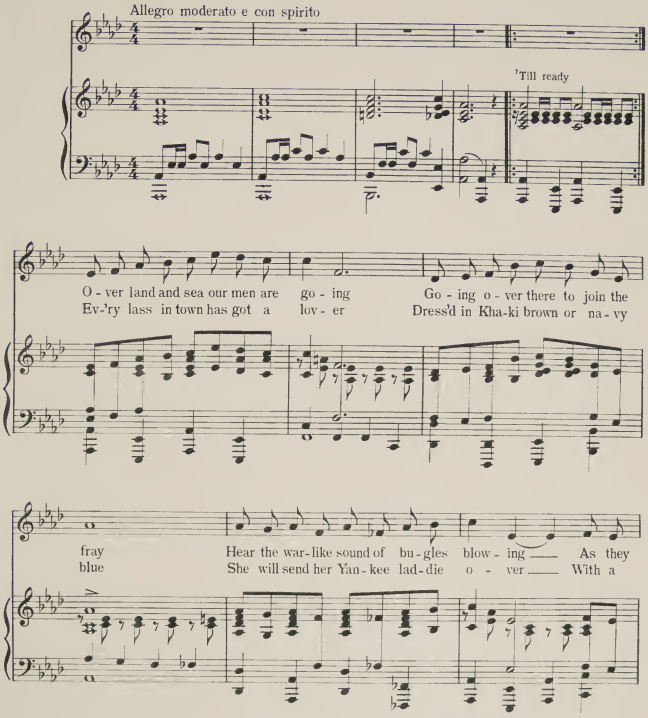
Price 50 Cents

CHARLES W HOMEYER & CO.
332 BOYLSTON ST.
BOSTON, MASS.

Follow the Flag

Words by
ELIZABETH ZERRAHN

Music by
CONSTANCE ZERRAHN BRADLEY



Allegro moderato e con spirito
'Till ready
O - ver land and sea our men are go - ing
Ev-'ry lass in town has got a lov - er Go - ing o - ver there to join the Dress'd in Kha-ki brown or na - vy fray
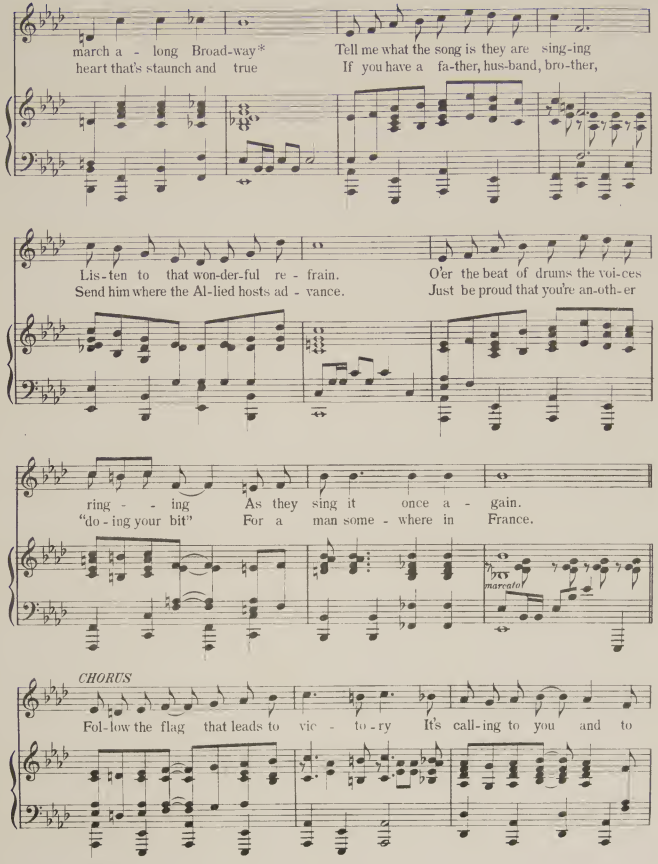
blue
Hear the war-like sound of bu-gles blow - ing
She will send her Yan-kee lad-die o - ver
As they
With a

Copyright 1918 by Constance Zerrahn Bradley



march a - long Broad-way*
heart that's staunch and true
Tell me what the song is they are sing-ing
If you have a fa-ther, hus-band, bro-ther,
Lis-ten to that won-der-ful re - frain.
Send him where the Al-lied hosts ad - vance.
O'er the beat of drums the voi-ces
Just be proud that you're an-oth-er ring - - ing
"do - ing your bit"
As they sing it once a - gain.
For a man some - where in France.
marcato!
CHORUS
Fol-low the flag that leads to vic - to - ry
It's call-ing to you and to

* As our Laddies march away me Tramp-ing a-long Ten mil-lion strong Get-ting to-geth-er means get-ting to Ger-ma-ny, So o-ver the top for peace and lib-er-ty Play-ing the game through thick and thin Oh! Fritz will be wis-er, When we have canned the Kai-ser, And Sam-my hits the trail to Ber-lin.